Horse Clinic with Richard Winters

Date: 27 August 2012
Location: Western City Sciegny near Karpacz
http://www.western.com.pl/index.php/kontakt.html

Clinician: Richard Winters

Richard Winters has worked with horses for over 30 years. He participated in many rodeo arenas and worked for many ranches cross the Western Coast of USA. He has won many champion titles including Word Champion of the Reined Cow Horse Association and Western States Champion in Colt Starting, he received Monty Roberts Prize for his contribution to building man/horse relations and he won Road to the Horse competition in 2009.

Richard travels giving clinics for all horsemen – let them be beginners or advanced riders. He also cooperates with the famous Thacher School in California, where he teaches his own program - Richard Winters Horsemanship – showing how to achieve lightness of the trained horses thanks to the right communication – no matter what style you ride or compete.

The clinic will focus on light hands and lightness of other cues in all equestrian disciplines.

The clinic starts at 09.oo a.m. on Monday (indoor arena at Western City) and will last 8 hours with a break of 1.5 hrs.

Available forms of participation:
- as a rider – with own horse
- as an auditor.

Participant fees:
- 105 euro riders
- 40 euro auditors
Prices do not include stall fees nor accommodation & food for participants.

The number of participants will be limited so each rider can expect to get individual feedback from Richard, as well as benefit from the feedback he will give others.
